Written by Luka Bloom ' You couldn't have come at a better time' is a lively tune based on the air of the Kesh Jig that will make you want to get up and dance. The song combines both the folk and the Trad genres. Once I heard the song I felt it had the potential to crossover to the country music genre too. This song has two key ingredients, a story and an upbeat rhythm - it immediately changes your mood. Perfect to dance the slesh or just sing along too.

From a small village in Mayo, David Connor has a very distinctive voice. He is known in his hometown of Claremorris for performing with his own band 'Southern Revival' in various locations including Claremorris, Longford and Boyle as well as performing in many concerts and events around the west of Ireland. He has performed with a variety of artists from the Keane Family to Finbar Furey.

A proud Mayo man, he even recorded the 'Mayo Cup Song' and released a video (found on YouTube) for the 2016 All-Ireland Football Final along with his sister Jenny, where all proceeds went to Cystic Fibrosis.

He performed his debut single 'As She's Walking Away' in the Town Hall Claremorris to a sold out audience in the 'Local Stars' Concert.

Last February he performed in the McWilliam Park Hotel as a special guest for Eunice Moran and her Band.

David Connor has a young, fresh voice for country music. Something Irish country has yet to see and hear. He's no stranger to the social dance scene either as he enjoys jiving just as much as performing. David's goal is to keep you dancing all night long.
